The Musée Thomas-Henry which was attempting to acquire the panel by Fra Angelico auctioned off last Saturday in Marseille by SVV Leclaire failed to purchase the work. The painting fragment in fact sold for 445,000€ (552,000€, including charges) and could therefore not be pre-empted. We can in no way blame the museum for not succeeding.

The Entombment of Christ - National Gallery of Art A letter from Bernard Berenson to Henry Goldman, dated 27 February 1924 (copy in NGA curatorial files), in which the scholar congratulates the collector on the acquisition of "that beautiful Fra Angelico," would indicate the panel was a recent addition.
